
VOLUME ONE: Books 1 & 2

BOOK ONE : “Drawing with feeling”

PART 1 : OBJECTIVES

Chapter 1: Accuracy versus expression 1-9

PART 2 : ESTABLISHED PRACTICES

Chapter 2: Renaissance-based approaches 10-31

Chapter 3: The arrival of Modernist teaching methods 32-37

Chapter 4: The sketch as a link between old ways and new 38-57

Chapter 5: Negative Shapes 59-71

Chapter 6: Contour Drawing 72-89

Chapter 7: Photographs 90-97

Chapter 8: Movement, speed and memory 98-107

PART 3 : THE NEW DRAWING LESSON

Chapter 9: The drawing lesson: Preparation 108-122

Chapter 10 : The Drawing lesson: The first nineteen lines 123-149

Chapter 11 : The drawing lesson: Conclusion 150-165

PART 4 : LINKS WITH CREATIVITY

Chapter 12: Looking forward 165-172

BOOK TWO: Drawing with knowledge

PART 5 : Setting the scene

Chapter 1: Drawing with knowledge 173-184

PART 6 : LINEAR PERSPECTIVE

Chapter 13: History of linear perspective and anatomy 185-194

Chapter 14: The Demonstrations 195-210

Chapter 15: Finding the Eye Line 211-223

Chapter 16: Head Movement 224-229

Chapter 17: Axes of Symmetry, recession & the constancies
230- 247

PART 7 : ANATOMY

Chapter 18: History of anatomy for artists 248-258

Chapter 19 : Bones 259-270

Chapter 20 : Muscles, fat and clothes 271-275

PART 8 : SYNTHESIS

Chapter 22 : a bridge to creativity 277-29

APPENDICES for Volume 1

Appendix A : stroke-direction preferences	428-430
Appendix B : Perspective grids	???

GLOSSARY FOR ALL VOLUMES

Terms, phrases & background information	294-427
---	---------